Looking after those grizzly tums as best as we can.

We make all our goodies in small batches, crafted with care & are best enjoyed fresh. While we do our very best to minimise risk, we can't guarantee they're completely allergen-free, as cross-contamination may occur. Got a serious allergy? We're so glad you're here

Rollickin makes! We churn our gelato & sorbets in small, handcrafted batches using real-deal New Zealand milk, cream & fruit. So if your scoop comes with a mint leaf, a pip, or mango fibres, that's just proof it's packed with the real stuff. Each special batch gets the full Rollickin love: cookie chunks, cakey bits, fudgey swirls & saucy layers – mostly made by our bakers, of course! We skip the fluffy air-puff you find in regular ice cream, so our gelato's denser, more flavoursome & ready to fill that happy puku. Enjoy!
